Social Mixer - $5,000:

- Your organization will host a social mixer suite for 2 hours on one night during the conference (food & beverage covered for a maximum of 400 people)
- A Sandia National Laboratories representative will coordinate a marketing plan to promote your reception (this marketing plan will include an invitation e-mailed to registered attendees as well as a room drop to each attendee at the start of the event)
- You will also have to opportunity to invite your local clients to attend the reception

Conference Tote Bags - $5,000:

- See your company's name and logo everywhere during the conference as attendees tote their conference materials in the official conference tote bag
- Along with your logo printed on the bag, you will also have the opportunity to put a marketing piece into each bag

Lanyards - $2,500:

- Your company can be featured on the lanyard that all attendees will be wearing during the event (during the conference, attendees are required to wear their name badges on lanyards for admission to all keynote sessions, break-out sessions and exhibit hall functions)
- This is the perfect opportunity to gain name recognition for your company
